STORES HENS DEOP OFF

ICE AND SNOW MAKE

Ice storms ,rain, snow and continued cloudy weather do not stimulate egg production. The egg yield at Storrs last week was affected adversely and the splendid start during the pass month has been partly offset. The hens dropped a couple of dozen eggs behind the ped a couple of dozen eggs behind the previous week's production and fell twenty eggs below the average for the last seven years. The total for all pens was 1385 eggs or a yield of nearly 20 per cent. At the end of the first month there were two pens of barred Rocks, one pen of Columbian Rocks, three pens of White Rocks, one pen of White Wy-andottes, and two pens of Rhode Island Reds, a total of eight pens in all which have not laid a single egg. Contrasted with these non-producing pens are fifprocesses
This reduction means a saving to the consumers of gas of approximately $20, 200 per year.

LONDON STRING QUARTET
CAPTIVATES BIG AUDIENCE
An audience that filled Stater hall to the deors and artists that measured up to the high standard set every year for the programs of the Academy musical course gave the season an auspicious opening Wednesday verning with the appearance here of the London String Quartet. For two hours the musicians held the big auridience hushed to almost breathless silence as they listened to the rarely beautiful program of chamber music interpreted with a wealth of poetic imagination by the quartet.

The musicians were James Levey, first violin; Thomas W. Petre, second violin; H. Waldo Warner, viola; C. Warwick-Evans, violonceilo.

The following was the program:

Quartet for strings in D minor. Mozart Perars edition No. 13 (2.2 V 421, No. 2).

TO STOP COUGHING AT NIGHT.

When anyone is suffering from a bron-chial affliction or has a cough that lin-gers on and grows worse at night, the loss of sleep tends to weaken the sufferer and grows more serious the longer it is neglected. Mrs. M. Suter, 647 Longbrook Ave., Stratford, Conn., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar has given me great relief from a severe attack of bronchitis." No medicine stands higher throughout the nation as a family remedy for colds, coughs and croup. Lee & Osgood Ca.
